

Alma Thomas was an African-American painter who lived in America.

She was a teacher who taught art to children.

She is best known for her very colourful paintings.