

John Ruskin Remote Learning Closure Plan

Situation	Actions
A child is self-isolating and not able to attend school	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will immediately be sent a home working pack with consolidation activities.</li> <li>• The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with general information and resources to support remote learning.</li> <li>• Children will be directed to use a range of educationally appropriate websites.</li> <li>• Parents/carers will be directed to use a class or year group email for further support</li> <li>• Teachers will upload to Microsoft Teams worksheets used in class. All children have been provided with usernames and login details to be able to access the work.</li> </ul>
A class or year group bubble needs to close	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will be required to access work each day on Microsoft Teams, SLT will follow up children not doing so.</li> <li>• Teachers will provide remote learning for maths and English and topic work using Microsoft Teams from the first day of closure.</li> <li>• Children will be provided with feedback on their work and will be able to communicate with their class teacher through posts.</li> <li>• Teachers will post daily learning videos with voiceovers, and lessons will follow the curriculum.</li> <li>• If a teacher is unwell and unable to produce remote lessons, lessons will be provided for that class by other teachers within the school.</li> <li>• Parents/carers will be directed to use a class or year group email for further support.</li> </ul>
The whole school needs to close	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will be required to access work each day on Microsoft Teams, SLT will follow up children not doing so.</li> <li>• Teacher will provide remote learning for maths and English and topic work using Microsoft Teams from the first day of closure.</li> <li>• Children will be provided with feedback on their work and will be able to</li> </ul>

John Ruskin Remote Learning Closure Plan

	communicate with their class teacher through posts. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Teachers will create learning videos with voiceovers, and lessons will follow the curriculum.</li><li>• If a teacher is unwell and unable to produce remote lessons, lessons will be provided for that class by other teachers within the school.</li><li>• The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with general information and resources to support remote learning.</li><li>• Parents/carers will be directed to use a class or year group email for further support.</li><li>• If teachers are required to attend school to provide childcare for vulnerable children or children of keyworkers during a lockdown, lessons will be provided for that class by other teachers within the school.</li><li>• Short live sessions will take place weekly with the class teacher on Microsoft Teams.</li></ul>
--	--