Curriculum in Action - French

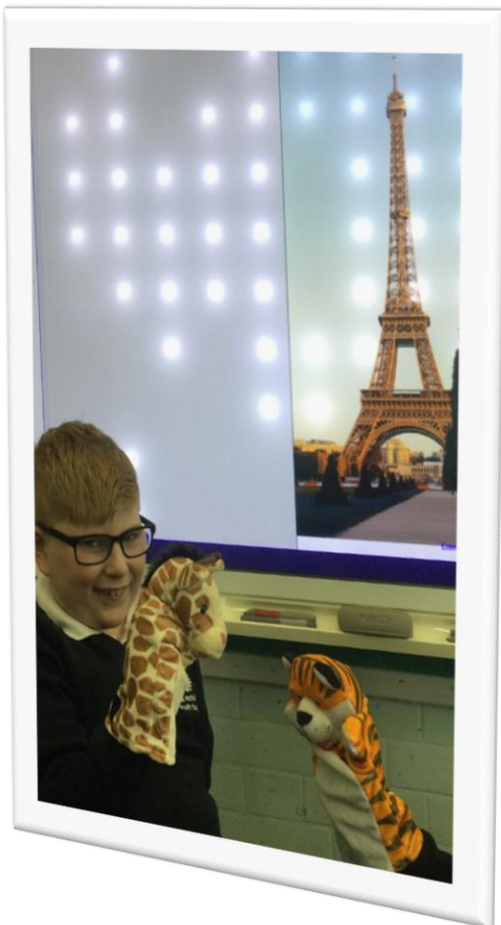

French

In the Language Unit, we have been learning to greet, say our names and age in French. We have used puppets to do this.

Bonjour,
Comment ça va?
Comment t'appelles-
tu?

I like learning new
words in French.
Oscar

The games help me
remember the words.
Karim

The children would like to challenge you to read and translate this letter. You can use Google Translate to help.

Salut,

Je m'appelle Amélie. J'ai neuf ans. J'habite à Paris avec mes parents et mon petit chat, Fifi.

Le week-end, je joue de la guitare. J'aime aller au parc et jouer au football.

Et toi? Quel âge as-tu? As-tu un animal? Aimes-tu le sport?

Écris-moi bientôt.

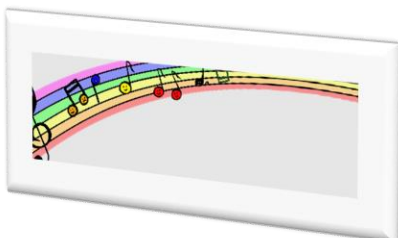

Salutations,

Amélie

In Year 2, the primary focus is on speaking and listening skills. We aim to develop confidence through repetition, songs and games.

We learnt the numbers in French, 'trois' is three.
*Isabella

We sang a song about the rainbow in French.
*Lennon

We made books about shapes and colours to help those who don't know French. They were fun to make.

Haja

I know the colours in French. My favourite colour is 'rose'.

Paula

In Year 6, the children made shape and colour books.

I like 'rouge'.
Houda

I like French because it helps us to communicate in a different language and this will help us in the future.

Assedia

I can say nose in French-le nez.

Adam

Playground Reminder

To ensure that all children are safe, children should not ride their scooters at all in the playground. Children in year groups 1-4 should be supervised in the playground in the morning until the bell goes at 9.05am. Unfortunately, they cannot run around. This is due to the volume of children and adults in the playground first thing and accidents may occur. Thank you for your cooperation.
